Bentota Resort

Making each moment a breeze!

Blissful beach getaway

Designed by the renowned architect Geoffrey Bawa, Avani Bentota Resort is a contemporary yet stylish beach property located away from the hustle and bustle of the city. Languidly sprawled on one of the best, golden beach stretches in the country, Avani Bentota Resort is a launch pad to begin a series of South coast expeditions. Consisting of 75 rooms and suites together with essential comforts, traditional hospitality and incredible Indian Ocean views, our guests are in for a blissful beach getaway.

Get to know the locale

Situated along the coastal belt of Sri Lanka, the town of Bentota falls into the Galle District of the Southern Province. With golden beach stretches and swaying coconut palms, one sure is to feel they are tucked away on a tropical island despite the close proximity to the country's busy capital.
