FULL DAY SUNRISE ANGKOR WAT, TA PROHM AND ANGKOR THOM

Join us for an early start (4.30 am) to see Angkor Wat at Sunrise. The bas-reliefs that feature the Hindu myths and real history of Suryavarman II are the main feature of the morning's visit.

Afterwards, we travel to Ta Prohm, one of the most popular temples in the area. Take a leisurely stroll through this wondrous site, with giant fig and kapok trees strangling the ancient stonework in a photogenic interplay of man and nature.

After lunch we travel to the Victory Gate of Angkor Thom. Walk along the 8m-high laterite wall (500m) of the ancient city to the relatively unvisited and magical East Gate. The crematoria built against the outside of the city wall are best seen from up on the wall and give rise to the popular name of "Gate of Death".

We walk past the monumental Baphuon temple and Phimeanakas, with its beautiful lakes, continuing through the shaded parkland behind the Terrace of the Elephants. We move to Bayon, Jayavarman's state temple at the centre of the city. We explore the lower levels with bas-relief carvings and gradually make our way to the inner walls where unfinished carvings were later completed during the reign of King Jayavarman VII.
