Sunrise at Angkor

Dawn Over Angkor: A Story in Every Ray

The sunrise, a must-see for every adventurer.

Your unforgettable journey begins with an early morning departure from FCC, aboard a vintage Jeep, a modern Vespa, or a traditional tuk-tuk, to arrive just in time to witness the sunrise over the ancient stones of Angkor Wat. After capturing this magical moment, embark on our guided tour of the famous Angkor Wat temple and delve into the fascinating history and culture that lie behind its intriguing carvings.

Return to The Mansion to freshen up and enjoy a hearty, delicious breakfast before continuing your adventure.

Your journey continues to the majestic South Gate of Angkor Thom, where the splendid Bayon awaits – a temple that stands as a testament to the grandeur of the Khmer Empire – along with the famous ancient royal monuments, the Terrace of the Elephants and the Terrace of the Leper King.

Stop at a local pagoda near Bayon to receive a traditional Monk Blessing before continuing your quest to Ta Prohm. Known as the Jungle Temple or Tomb Raider Temple, this lush ancient complex is another highlight of the tour. The gigantic, centuries-old trees that adorn this temple make it one of the most impressive monuments in the entire region.

Approximate duration: 6 to 8 hrs.

Discover the Hidden Legends of Angkor's Temples and Rivers

Discover the hidden treasures of Angkor with our unique experience, taking you through the stunning Banteay Srey Temple and the ancient archaeological wonder of Kbal Spean.

Your adventure begins with a visit to the Banteay Srey Temple, often called the "Temple of Women" due to its delicate, intricate carvings and the pinkish hue of its stones. This beautifully preserved monument, set amidst the Cambodian countryside, offers a peaceful and enriching exploration of Khmer art and history.

Next, journey to Kbal Spean, an Angkorian-era site nestled in the southwestern slopes of the Kulen Hills. Known as the "River of a Thousand Lingas," Kbal Spean features a series of remarkable stone carvings along a 150-meter stretch of the Stung Kbal Spean River. Carved into the riverbed and banks, these intricate reliefs depict Hindu gods and symbols, blending spirituality with nature in a setting that feels otherworldly.

The Mansion restaurant will provide lunch boxes of your choice, offering a replenishing pause after an inspiring walk through these sacred sites.

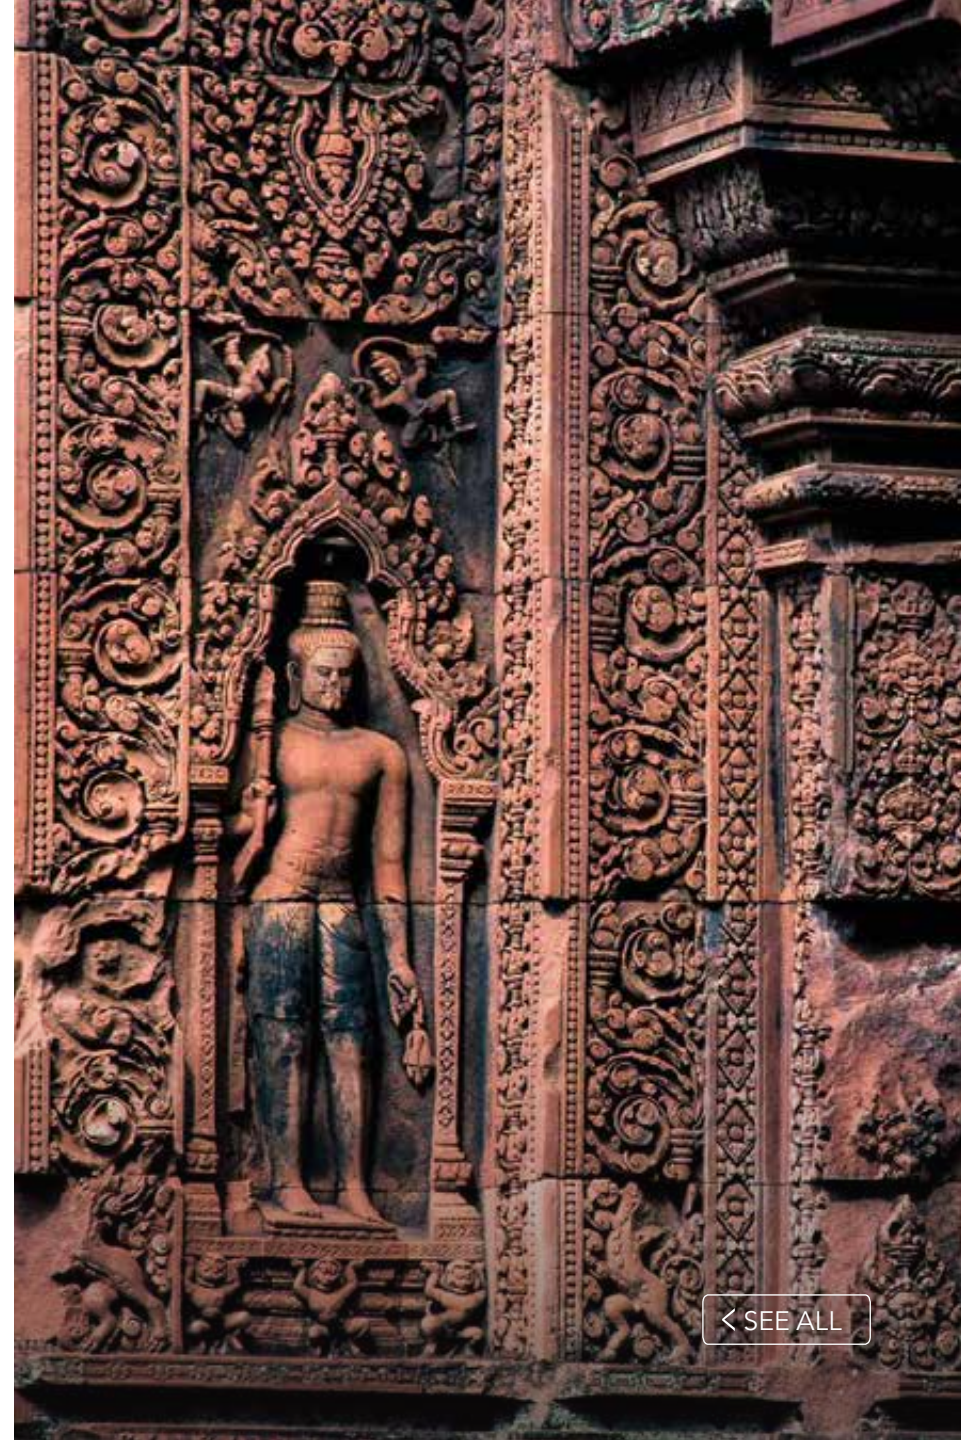

This immersive experience allows you to uncover some of Angkor's most magical and less-traveled locations, offering a deep connection to Cambodia's rich cultural and natural heritage.
