

An aerial photograph of a modern outdoor lounge area. The scene is dominated by a dark wood deck. In the upper right, a swimming pool with blue mosaic tiles and a white stone border is visible. To the left of the pool, there's a large, round, woven wicker chair with a pink cushion and a small round wicker table with a book. In the center, there's a contemporary coffee table set with three rectangular pieces in shades of grey and white. To the right, a dining table with four light-colored chairs is set with plates and glasses. The background shows lush greenery and a white wall. The overall aesthetic is clean, modern, and relaxing.
