The food you love, at the time you want and in your preferred setting. Local fishermen's seafood by the sea. Cocktails by the pool. Multi-cultural cuisine to satisfy every taste – think Thai, Western, Indian, and more. We've got Hua Hin restaurants that make your meals memorable – for all the right reasons.

Avani+ Hua Hin Hotel's commitment to locally sourced produce now extends to 90% of the ingredients used in resort's restaurants. The resort is working more with Thai farmers and suppliers to source fresh, locally-grown ingredients aiming to support the economy and reduce carbon footprint.

STAA'S THE WORLD ON A PLATE DAILY | 6:30 AM – 10:30 pm

Weather

The Gulf has three seasons – dry, hot and green. The dry season between November and February features perfect sunny days, cool nights and a nice breeze. The summer months of March to June are ideal for sunbathing with temperatures reaching into the high 30s. The monsoons begin July, although rainfall is brief and has a nice cooling effect. The mountains surrounding are at their most lush during this period and the beaches more tranquil. Although kitesurfing is year-round in these parts, the best winds are November through April.
