1. The UNESCO World Heritage City oozes with history, and cultural natural sites.
2. Khuang Si Waterfalls: here a single large cascade tumbles from the jungle feeding a series of falls and pools that make perfect swimming holes.
3. Pha Tad Ke Botanical Garden is a regional research centre creating the first living collection of the flora of Laos with a strong focus on ethnobotany, research and education.
4. Luang Prabang night market is something not to be missed, an amazing sight and offers the most extensive collection of handicrafts in the country.
5. Vat Xieng Thong: King Setthathirath built Vat Xieng Thong in the Lane Xane Kingdom's capital in 1560. A glittery mosaic of glass and tiles covers the exterior of the tiny "Golden City Monastery".
6. Lao traditions remain the focus of local life today: the Buddhist Alms Giving Ceremony is repeated each morning by individuals paying their respects to saffron-cloaked monks on every street.
7. Cruise and enjoy Luang Prabang's landscape with a river perspective on a unique Mekong Kingdom Cruise.
8. Mount Phousi, a 150m tall hill in the centre of the old town of Luang Prabang is bordered on one side by the Mekong River and on the other side by the Nam Khan River. It remains a popular place to watch the sun rise and set over the Mekong River.
9. Luang Prabang province is perfect for trekking. Pass through beautiful forests, scenic waterfalls and experience a homestay in amazing ethnic villages to gain a true insight into the rural life of the local people.
10. Pak Ou Caves is home to thousands of Buddha images. The riverfront forms the mouth of the Pak Ou River presenting a pair of centuries-old cave temples also known as "Tam Ting".
