Weather

Dubai has a sub-tropical desert climate, meaning it's dry and warm for most of the year. It has two main seasons from November to March, there is a mild winter, but temperatures rarely dip below 15 degrees Celsius. The hot summer lasts from April to October, with temperatures regularly over 30 degrees Celsius and reaching highs of 42 – 46 degrees. Rain showers are uncommon, with annual precipitation of around 100 millimetres, but can be intense.

It is strongly advised to wear a high factor sunscreen, particularly between 11:00 am – 3:00 pm when the sun is at its strongest.

Natural fibres are the most comfortable for this climate.
