CHAM HISTORICAL JOURNEY

Make the most of AVANI Quy Nhon's unique location at the heart of one of the world's most intriguing destinations. Our local experts and guides will take you on an up-close historic journey through the 11th century Cham dynasty . Discover the complex of Banh It towers, an old tower cluster of Champa people. Standing at the foot of the towers or on the peak on a high mount, you can sense the immenseness of the universe and never-ending of time. Explore the three spires of the Duong Long Towers, the most beautiful and fascinating relic from the Cham Pa culture, and admire the carved stone designs which are drawing the attention of researchers. Finish your fantastic journey with the Doi Tower (twin towers) and contemplate the giant linga and yoni stone statues in white that represent man's maintenance and immortality.

QUY NHON CITY ON 4 OR 2 WHEELS

Choose your transportation mode, by scooter or by car, and depart for a well-rounded mix of the city's attractions, including the Cham Doi Towers, Long Khanh Temple, the bustling Dam Market and the buzzing Queen Beach offering multiple arts and crafts objects and souvenirs. End your excursion with a cultural stop at the fascinating Binh Dinh History Museum.

HISTORY AND MARTIAL ARTS AT QUANG TRUNG MUSEUM

Located in the southern part of the central region, Binh Dinh province is not only known as the land of Vietnamese traditional martial arts but also the birthplace of King Quang Trung, leader of the Tay Son uprising at the end the 18th century. The museum dedicated to this national hero is a historic landmark that will certainly attract your attention.
