P'BIRTH CHIEF CONCIERGE'S TOP TIPS

Meet our new Chief Concierge, Khun Birth. Originally from Ratchaburi, Khun Birth moved to Bangkok as a child and after graduating, worked as a lawyer for the Ministry of Justice. It wasn't long before he realized he preferred lively and genuine interactions over paperwork, which prompted his transition into the vibrant field of hospitality.

Khun Birth landed his first role at Westin Grande Sukhumvit in 2009, where he started as a Bellman. His dedication and talent quickly earned him a promotion to concierge, where he showcased his exceptional skills and commitment to excellence, earning him his golden keys from "Les Clefs d'Or," an exclusive organization of professional concierges known for their high standards of service and expertise.

Khun Birth enjoys exploring Bangkok's dynamic dining scene, seeking out new restaurants to ensure he provides up-to-date recommendations.

What Khun Birth enjoys most about his role is the opportunity to meet and connect with diverse guests from around the world. He relishes the stories and experiences that each person brings, enriching his life and those of his colleagues.

ATTRACTIONS

For first-time visitors to Bangkok, Khun Birth provides his Top 3 recommendations, all can be reached by the river and a short walk.

Start at the Grand Palace, a stunning architectural landmark and Bangkok's royal residence, featuring Wat Phra Kaew, home to the revered Emerald Buddha. Arrive early to enjoy its beauty and avoid the crowds. Next, visit Wat Arun, or the Temple of Dawn, which dazzles with its central spire adorned with colourful porcelain tiles. Birth recommends taking a boat ride across the Chao Phraya River for spectacular views, especially at sunrise or sunset.

Finally, explore Wat Traimit, housing the world's largest solid gold Buddha statue, that was hidden in plain sight for nearly two centuries. This remarkable temple offers a glimpse into Thailand's spiritual heritage and history.

SHOPPING

IconSiam and Siam Paragon are premier shopping malls that offer a luxurious retail experience. At IconSiam, you'll find high-end brands and unique Thai products, along with stunning riverside views. Siam Paragon is a shopper's paradise, featuring everything from designer boutiques to gourmet dining options.

For a more budget-friendly experience, check out MBK Center and Platinum Fashion Mall. MBK is famous for its affordable clothing, electronics, and souvenirs, while Platinum specializes in wholesale fashion, making it the perfect spot for trendy finds at great prices.

Finally, don't miss Chatuchak Weekend Market and Talad Rot Fai (Train Night Market), where you can explore countless stalls filled with everything from vintage items to local crafts. These vibrant markets are perfect for discovering unique treasures and experiencing local culture.

DINING

Start your culinary journey in Chinatown, where you'll find a vibrant street food scene offering a plethora of delicious dishes. Explore the bustling streets and savour local favourites like grilled seafood and dim sum.

Next, indulge in traditional Thai cuisine at Ban Kanitha, known for its authentic dishes and charming ambience. Here, you can enjoy classic favourites made with fresh, quality ingredients in a beautiful setting. This is where you can experience the true taste of Thai.

Lastly, treat yourself to a fine dining experience at Blue Elephant, which beautifully combines Thai cuisine with a luxurious atmosphere. Located in a stunning historical building, this restaurant offers an exquisite menu that reflects Thailand's rich culinary heritage.

These dining spots curated by Birth promise to delight your taste buds and enhance your stay in Bangkok!

NIGHTLIFE

Khao San Road is a lively hotspot for backpackers and travelers alike, offering an eclectic mix of bars, street food, and live music. It's the perfect place to enjoy a casual night out, with an energetic atmosphere that showcases Bangkok's youthful spirit.

In Sukhumvit, you'll find a more upscale nightlife scene featuring trendy bars, international clubs, and rooftop lounges with breathtaking views of the city. Popular spots include Soi 11 for inexpensive booze and lively bars, and/or Thong Lor, where Bangkok's most beautiful people prefer to party.

Sathorn/Silom caters to those looking for a diverse nightlife experience, combining stylish cocktail bars with local pubs and night markets. Sathorn is known for its fine dining and sophisticated venues, while Silom offers bustling street markets and vibrant entertainment options, with myriad pubs, clubs and bars.

AVANI+ GOES PET FRIENDLY

Yes, that's right. From 1 January 2025, Avani+ Bangkok will be welcoming pet cats and dogs up to 10kg. This new pet-friendly policy allows guests to travel with their furry companions, ensuring a memorable stay for the whole family. With dedicated amenities and services for pets, we aim to create a comfortable and inviting environment for both guests and their beloved animals.

SEEN RESTAURANTS, BARS & BEACH CLUBS

SEEN is arguably Bangkok's best rooftop bar, but did you know, that SEEN Bangkok is not a standalone venue. In fact, there are a handful of SEEN bars and restaurants (and a beach club), located across South America, Europe and Asia.

It all started in São Paulo, Brazil, where Olivier da Costa brought his vision to life in 2014. SEEN São Paulo was a breath of fresh air in the culinary scene, infusing traditional Brazilian ingredients with international influences. The restaurant quickly captured the attention of food lovers, establishing itself as a must-visit destination bustling with energy, innovative dishes, and great cocktails.

As the success of SEEN São Paulo grew, Olivier set his sights on expanding the brand's reach. This leap led to SEEN Lisbon, where the essence of Portuguese cuisine was brought together with the brand's characteristic flair. Guests were delighted to find themselves immersed in a lively atmosphere, enjoying exquisite dishes that celebrated both local traditions and fresh, contemporary twists.

SEEN Rome is nestled in the luxurious Anantara Palazzo Naiadi, where the richness of history meets contemporary elegance in the heart of Italy's vibrant capital. This stunning venue invites guests to indulge in a culinary experience that celebrates traditional Italian flavours while adding a modern twist. With breathtaking views overlooking the iconic Piazza della Repubblica, SEEN Rome offers more than just dining - it's a sensory journey, that reflects the charm and sophistication of the Eternal City.

SEEN Nice is located in the elegant Anantara Plaza Nice Hotel, capturing the essence of the sun-soaked Riviera lifestyle. This vibrant venue invites guests to savour Mediterranean-inspired dishes prepared with fresh, local ingredients. With stunning views of the azure sea and the Promenade des Anglais, SEEN Nice creates a relaxed yet sophisticated atmosphere, perfect for enjoying leisurely meals on a delightful escape along the stunning French Riviera.

SEEN Bangkok opened in 2019 and since its inception has captured the hearts of local Bangkokians who are looking for great views and even better vibes. Perched on the 26th floor of Avani+ Bangkok, high above the River of Kings, this venue captures a fresh perspective by getting back to the brand roots with a half-Columbian half Venezuelan chef de cuisine Carlos Rodriguez. SEEN Bangkok invites guests to savour beautifully crafted South American and Nikkei inspired dishes that showcase local ingredients and modern techniques.

The most recent addition to the growing portfolio, SEEN Beach Club Samui, perfectly complements SEEN's story. Located on the stunning shores of Samui's east coast, this beach club perfectly captures the essence of relaxation and indulgence. DJs drop badass beats and basslines by the beach as guests dance barefoot by the pool, in a casual, laid-back setting, sipping bubbles next to the sun-kissed sands of Chaweng.

OCEAN'S ELEVEN @ SKYLINE

One of Thailand's biggest draws is the authentic and delicious food that is served up everywhere across the kingdom, from street-side stalls to Michelin-star brick and mortar restaurants; regardless of the venue's aesthetic, some of the best cuisine in the world is produced within Thailand's borders.

Due to its long and expansive coastline, and an abundance of fishing spots, both in the Thai Gulf and the Andaman Sea, seafood has always been a staple in Thai cuisine, particularly the further south you go. Whether raw or stir-fried, curried or grilled, the Thais on average, consume around 35 kilograms of seafood every year. And if you're thinking that doesn't sound like much, then you're a great candidate for the newest chapter in Skyline's food offerings - Ocean's Eleven - a button-bursting banquet of sumptuous seafood and mouthwatering meats.

On top of the buffet, there will be live cooking stations featuring a variety of dishes prepared a la minute. Check out the carvery, the wok and the grill and don't miss out on the ceviche station or the crepes suzette for a sweet finale.

Ocean's Eleven is hosted at Skyline every Friday and Saturday night from 6:00 pm to 10:00 pm. Should you wish to make a booking, please either contact the concierge or dial '0' for the Guest Service Centre.

A BEAUTIFUL AFTERNOON

Step into the enchanting realm of Sweet, where every moment is a celebration of colours and flavours! Our vibrant new take on afternoon tea, invites you to indulge in a whimsical array of delectable treats that are as stunning as they are scrumptious.

Picture yourself savouring our luscious passionfruit cheesecake, each bite bursting with tropical sweetness. Dive into the creamy berry panna cotta, a delightful harmony of smooth texture and fruity goodness that dances on your palate.

For those with a penchant for the bold, our charcoal choux shrimp tom yam is a must-try – a thrilling blend of savoury and spicy flavours wrapped in a light, airy pastry. And don't miss the delectable chicken brioche, which offers a delightful twist on a classic favourite.

To add a touch of festive cheer, delight in our chocolatey Sugar Babies dragée, adorned with vibrant confetti sprinkles that make every bite a joyful surprise.

Sip on expertly brewed tea or coffee to enhance your experience, creating the perfect pairing for your tasty adventure. Join us at Longbar, where each experience is crafted to inspire joy and indulgence, inviting you to relish the pleasures of life, one delightful bite at a time!

For more information or reservations, please reach out to one of our team members or dial '0' from your room.

CLOSEST BEACHES TO BANGKOK

HUA HIN

Hua Hin is a sophisticated beach resort located about 200 kilometers south of Bangkok, known for its family-friendly atmosphere and rich historical charm. As one of Thailand's earliest beach destinations, it combines traditional Thai culture with modern amenities. Hua Hin Beach boasts a long stretch of soft sand and calm waters, making it ideal for swimming and sunbathing.

Visitors can immerse themselves in local culture at the bustling Hua Hin Night Market, which features a wide array of street food, crafts, and souvenirs. The area also offers a variety of water sports, including jet skiing and kite surfing. For those seeking relaxation, numerous wellness retreats and luxurious spa services are available at local resorts.

Besides leisure activities, Hua Hin is home to cultural landmarks such as the iconic Hua Hin Railway Station, known for its stunning architecture, and the Cicada Market, which showcases local arts and crafts. This blend of relaxation, adventure, and cultural experiences makes Hua Hin an attractive choice for both tourists and locals.

PATTAYA

Pattaya, located approximately 150 kilometers from Bangkok, is renowned for its vibrant atmosphere and bustling nightlife, offering visitors a diverse range of experiences. The city's beaches, such as Pattaya Beach and Jomtien Beach, are popular for various water sports, including parasailing, jet skiing, and snorkeling, drawing in thrill-seekers and families alike.

As day turns to night, Pattaya transforms into a lively entertainment hub, especially along Walking Street, where bars, nightclubs, and live entertainment create an electrifying environment.

For families, the Cartoon Network Amazone Waterpark offers a fun experience for children of all ages, while outdoor enthusiasts can enjoy activities like zip-lining and ATV rides. For a more tranquil experience, visitors can take boat trips to nearby islands, like Koh Larn, known for their pristine beaches and crystal-clear waters. Pattaya remains a top destination for those looking to experience the best of Thailand's beach culture.

BANG SAEN

For those looking for a beach suitably located for a daytrip from Bangkok, Bang Saen is the best choice, located just 90 minutes away, making it an ideal spot for a break from the city. Unlike the more commercialised beaches, Bang Saen is favoured by local Thais and offers a lively family atmosphere, with a few quiet spots, should you prefer. The beach itself features clean, soft sand and gentle waves, making it particularly suitable for families with young children.

Visitors can indulge in the local culinary scene, with numerous seafood restaurants along the beachfront serving fresh and delicious dishes. For a more immersive experience, local markets provide an opportunity to engage with Thai culture and purchase unique crafts and goods.

The beachfront promenade is ideal for leisurely strolls and cycling. Bang Saen's charm lies in its authentic Thai beach experience, free from the typical tourist crowds, providing visitors with a genuine taste of local life and the opportunity to relax and recharge.
